

Erma Road

Date

Sun, 11/17/2024 - 08:00

Activity

Skiing

From obs: "I've been skiing the Erma Road recently. Good conditions for a quick ski up the road by but it's thin off the road. The 616 trail is too treacherous for my comfort zone. I think the Republic Creek alpine valley must be skiable though. Quick observation: a sun crust formed in the open areas on the road and on adjacent areas."

Region

Cooke City

Location (from list)

Republic Creek
