

Wind slab in south cottonwood

Date

Thu, 02/13/2025 - 03:50

Toured up around Blackmore and s cottonwood. Found an extremely reactive windslab in the afternoon. It was thin, but easily triggered and would propagate about the width of each terrain feature (20-50ft). Each slab ran the length of the slope (150-200 ft).

Observer Name

Jay Alford